Celebrating Jesus' Victory over Death

John 10 : 7 - 11, Then Jesus said to them again, "Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. All who ever came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. -NKJV

Christianity would be nothing if it wasn't for the resurrection of Jesus. Our faith and everlasting hope rest on the truth that Jesus is alive. Since Jesus is alive, we know that we can be born again and receive eternal life. Unlike the religions around the world, we have credible evidence that Jesus has the power and authority to give eternal life to whosoever comes to Him in faith.

Consequently, we have peace and assurance in the completed work of the cross on which Jesus gave His life. It is because of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection that we are reconciled to the Father and have peace with Him. Fifty days after Jesus' resurrection, God poured out His Spirit upon all flesh so that sinners could be born again. We have assurance that we are God's children and will never die because God's Holy Spirit dwells in those who have placed their faith in Jesus.

Through Jesus' death, we have eternal life. Through Jesus' suffering, we have divine healing. Through the chastisement of Jesus, we have peace with God. We are made alive and whole through the sufferings and death of our Lord and Savior, Jesus. Today, we celebrate the victory that Jesus had over two-thousand years ago when He overcame death, hell, and the grave for all. Jesus has proven through His resurrection that He is worthy to receive all glory, honor, authority, and praise. Let everything that has breath praise the Risen Lord!
