Bringing the Children to Jesus

Mark 10 : 13 - 14, Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God." –NKJV

Since the mid-nineties, Debbie, me, and our three sons collected shoeboxes with toys and other items to help the ministry of Operation Christmas Child reach more children for the Lord. When we became the pastors of this new church fellowship, the Lord instructed us to continue our focus on children for our outreaches.

Since the beginning of World Harvest Church North, we have endeavored to remain faithful to reaching children with the gospel of the kingdom of God. In the early years of WHCN, we organized local outreaches to provide children with backpacks filled with items they needed for the new school year. We offered haircuts, clothes, and various other services to encourage the children as they prepared to return to school.

We have funded organizations, such as Operation Christmas Child, to extend our reach beyond our region. WHCN has funded Christian schools, like Ebenezer Christian school in Kabale, Uganda, being led by Pastor Margaret Bakashaba. We have funded 14 Christian academies in Karachi, Pakistan which is led by Pastor Arif Sardar. We continue the vision that the Lord has given to WHCN to concentrate our mission outreaches and funding to help reach children.

As we see the progression of Islam in many countries, we strive to reach even more children with the gospel of the kingdom to build them up spiritually. As the children learn about Jesus and who they are as children of God, they will be empowered to resist the deceptive lies of man's religion. Thus, they will be able to stand for Christ and head-off the spread of Islam in their regions.

As you sow into the missions of WHCN, you are empowering children in other nations to personally know Christ. Consequently, they are able to shine for the Lord in their area. The more children that we are able to reach and see them brought to a relationship with Jesus, the greater impact they will have on the world. Through their relationship with the Lord, He will make them to become salt and light to the world.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support for the children that attend WHCN and for those who live in other nations. Through your prayers and financial support, many are able to receive hear about Jesus and to receive Him into their hearts. God bless you!
