The Fabric of America

From the mother who sends her children to school everyday
To the grandmother who prays on her knees without sway
From the father who goes the extra mile for bread on the table
To the grandfather who holds the hand of a child disabled
From the school house to the White House From the court house to the church house
The fabric of this great land... that was built by God's own hand
It will always triumph over the enemy's demand
The fabric it's made of ... no fiery darts can penetrate
For the Son of God held it on the cross prostrate
Three nails and some beams are all that you see but what's hidden ... it's the gleam
The love of a Father to redeem His own kind the love of a mother whose heart was inclined
It took one man ... willing to be human yet divine
Made of Spirit, Soul, and Mind This marvelous wonder called America
Was birthed and formed by the Master's guide
To be what she is to the great divide
So now let us look into our own hearts is there any good left ... anywhere?
In what we've done or where we've been Beginning again ... in the road that lies ahead
Can we make a difference? Just remember who's died in our stead. Christ the risen one ... our example
And all soldiers... great and small who never quit fighting ... some gave their all
No greater love hath any man than to give His own life
For his neighbor and his friend.
Lydia Long.
