Thanking God for every good thing

MEMORY VERSE

Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows.
James 1:17 NIrV

Engagement Questions

- How often do I pause to thank God specifically—not generally—for what He has done?
- How does gratitude shape humility and compassion in a person's heart?
- How might regularly expressing gratitude change the emotional atmosphere in our home?

Prayer

Dear God, keep our hearts from becoming distracted or entitled, and help us notice Your goodness every single day. Teach our family to pause, give thanks sincerely, and appreciate both the big and small ways You and others care for us.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, thank them for something they consistently do that often goes unnoticed.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What is one habit you could start that would help you thank God more often?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What is one good thing in your life that you sometimes forget to appreciate?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, help us to live a life of gratitude, always conscious of the ways You have helped us and for all You have given us."
