Thanking God for every good thing

MEMORY VERSE

Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows.
James 1:17 NIrV

Engagement Questions

- What tends to capture my attention more easily—what is good or what is frustrating? Why?
- If every good gift comes from God, how should that shape the way we view our possessions, abilities, relationships, and opportunities?
- How do I help my family understand that gratitude and sadness can exist at the same time?

Prayer

Dear God, help us model genuine gratitude by choosing to focus on what is good, true, and life-giving. Teach our family to recognize Your gifts in both ordinary moments and difficult seasons, and let thankfulness shape the way we think and live.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, challenge them to notice three good things before the day ends.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What is one good gift from God in your life right now?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What is something good in your life that you don't think about very often?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, help us slow down and recognize the good gifts You give us every day."
