Discussion Questions:

1. Read Matthew 6:21. If where you spend/invest your money indicates your priorities, what are your priorities (based on your finances)? Jesus' statement in this verse could also mean that your affections follow your investments. How have you seen this true in your life?
2. Read Revelation 3:15-19. In what ways can physical wealth blind us to spiritual poverty? What does Revelation 3:18 mean and how do we apply it to our lives?
3. What tends to make you anxious or worried? How can abiding in the love of our Heavenly Father help to expel these worries?
4. What does it mean to lay up treasures in heaven? How can you make eternal investments in the coming weeks?
5. How can you encourage each other to live out Matthew 6:33 this week? (Consider texting each other at 6:33 or something similar)
