Discussion Questions:

1. How often do you consider the fact that we are awaiting Jesus' return? Do you think that regularly remembering this truth is an important part of waiting well?
2. In the parable about the ten young women, what do you think the foolish women who didn't bring oil is meant to represent? What can this teach us about waiting well?
3. What "talents" has God given you? What kind of investment is God desiring you to make with these talents? What does that look like in your life?
4. Why do you think that Jesus points to what is done for the "least of these" as being done for Him? How is God calling you to show love to those in need?
5. (This question might have been answered in previous questions, but if not, answer it clearly to end the discussion.) What does it look like for you to wait well for Jesus' return? How can others encourage you to wait well?
