Sermon Discussion Questions
For the Week of March 6, 2022

Sermon Information:

If the Lord Wills
James 4:13-17

What is the problem?
- Living as if you are in control
- Living as if there is no God

Why is this a problem?
- It is foolish
- It is dangerous

How do we correct this problem?
- Regularly remember the sovereignty of God
- Quickly obey the commands of God

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever heard the phrase 'functional atheism'? What do you think of that phrase? Do you feel like you ever live as a functional atheist?

2. Think about a time when your life was unpredictable. Was that a humbling experience?

3. Read Proverbs 3:5-6, 16:9, 19:21, and 27:1. Summarize what these verses teach us about planning. What's the difference between planning for the future in a way that is wise and a way that is sinful?

4. What can you do this week to regularly remember the sovereignty of God? How can others encourage you in this?

5. Are there any particular sins of omission, not doing the things you should do, that you struggle with?

6. How could you share the truths of this passage with someone who isn't a believer?
