Discussion Questions:

1. Why might it be important to consider the overall structure of the book of Psalms? Why do you think the Psalter ends with five Psalms that focus on praise to the Lord?
2. Do you think it's true that everyone worships something? What/who do you think most of your neighbors and coworkers worship? What/who are you often tempted to worship instead of God?
3. Read Psalm 150:2. What mighty deeds has God done in your life? How can you regularly remind yourself of these great works? What would it look like for you to reflect on the greatness of God on a daily basis?
4. Read Psalm 100. What does this Psalm teach us about corporate worship? What can you do more to participate in the practice of corporate worship?
5. Have you ever seen genuine worship be inviting to those who aren't Christians? How can we use worship in our lives and in our church to help reach people who aren't Christians?
