

Day 1: The Sufficiency of Jesus

Reading: Colossians 2:9-10

Devotional: In Christ, the fullness of deity dwells in bodily form, and you have been filled in Him. This profound truth means you lack nothing for salvation or spiritual growth. Like Anakin Skywalker searching for power to save those he loved, we often look beyond Jesus for something more—secret knowledge, special experiences, or additional practices. Yet Scripture declares Christ is completely sufficient. You don't need Jesus plus anything else. No ritual, no mystical experience, no human philosophy can add to what Christ has already accomplished. Today, rest in this liberating truth: Jesus is enough. Your acceptance before God is complete in Him alone, not in what you do or achieve.
