

I. Introduction: God has the best possible plan for your life. Are you content with your life the way it is, or do you want this full, abundant life that God has waiting for you?

A. Prayer is talking to God with intention and purpose, as His beloved child, according to His word.

II. The Will Of God And Prayer

A. How do we begin to pray for God's will and experience this abundant life?

1. God's Will Is Lived Out

2. God's General Will Is Revealed

3. God's Specific Will Is Discerned

III. Conclusion: When we seek to know God's revealed will, we will live His will, pray His will, and discern His specific will when it isn't clear.

Questions About: The Will Of God And Prayer

1. How important is it to be living in the will of God? Why?
2. How would you define prayer in one sentence? How come?
3. Think of all the main things God wants for your life. Which of these are you not living out as well as you could be, or even at all?
4. How can you practically improve in areas where you know you aren't living God's will?
5. How can we begin to pray the will of God more, and have a better understanding of His will?
6. How do we discern God's will when it isn't as clear or obvious?