Welcome

So glad you're here

FEBRUARY 1ST

ONLY IN ETERNITY...

John Wesley's father, Samuel, was a dedicated pastor, but there were those in his parish who did not like him. Epworth residents did everything they could to drive the Wesley's out of town—damaging crops, livestock, and refusing to pay tithes. He would struggle all his life to make financial ends meet.

On February 9, 1709, a fire broke out in the parsonage at Epworth, possibly set by one of the rector's enemies. Young John, not yet six years old, was stranded on the upper floor of the building. Two neighbors rescued the lad just seconds before the roof crashed in. One neighbor stood on the other's shoulders and pulled young John through the window.

Samuel Wesley said, "Come, neighbors, let us kneel down. Let us give thanks to God. He has given me all my eight children. Let the house go. I am rich enough."

John Wesley often referred to himself as a "brand plucked out of the fire" (Zechariah 3:2, Amos 4:11).

In later years he often noted February 9 in his journal and gave thanks to God for His mercy.

AND LET US NOT BE WEARY IN WELL DOING: FOR IN DUE SEASON WE SHALL REAP, IF WE FAINT NOT.
GALATIANS 6:9

But what of his father? Samuel Wesley labored for 40 years at Epworth and saw very little fruit; but consider what his family accomplished for God and eternity!
