

Pour It All Out
Discussion Questions

1. Mary's devotion looked costly and even foolish to others. Where in your life might Jesus be inviting you to pour something out, even if it doesn't make sense to those around you?

2. Judas's objection sounded spiritual but was rooted in self-interest. How can we guard our hearts from serving ourselves under the language of faith?

3. Martha served, Lazarus lived, Mary worshiped—all valid expressions of devotion. Which of these three do you naturally lean toward, and which one might God be stretching you to grow in?

4. Lazarus didn't preach a sermon—his life was the sermon. In what ways could your everyday living point others to Jesus without words?

5. The story is ultimately a mirror: Mary poured it all out, Judas held back. When you look at your own life, what does your devotion reveal—and what next step could help you move closer to Jesus at the center?

These questions should spark deeper reflection and meaningful conversation about the key points of the sermon.
