

Finding Joy in Adversity Discussion Questions

1. How did Paul maintain his joy while being imprisoned? Can you share a time when you found joy despite facing difficult circumstances?

2. Paul saw his imprisonment as an opportunity to advance the Gospel. How can we trust God's sovereignty and look for opportunities to serve Him even when our plans don't go as expected?

3. Paul stated, "For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain." What does this statement mean to you personally? How can you apply this perspective to your daily life?

4. Paul used his imprisonment to preach to the guards and others he encountered. What are some challenging situations in your life where you can share the love of Christ? How can you prepare yourself to be bold in these moments?