

Hebrews 10:19-39

“Don’t Draw Back, Patiently Persevere”

Today we want to pretty much just jump right in & get started on that which is set before us. We don’t really need an extended introduction because the author himself briefly summarizes what he’s already said so as to put us into a position to rightly respond. Or to understand that another way he’s developed the principle, now let’s get practical, he’s established the doctrine, now it’s on to the duty.

& That’s fairly typical once again of a “Pauline” type writing style. He spends the 1st 3 Ch’s of the book of Eph developing doctrine (½ the letter) before he says a thing about the Christian responsibility. In the book of Romans he dedicates even more content to developing principles before he begins to get practical, & that’s because the way we behave is intricately attached & connected to what we believe. & So it’s critical that we have a solid foundation upon which to build before we begin to set in order that which makes for the frame work of our day to day lives. If I don’t have a balanced belief, I won’t have a very balanced behavior pattern, I’ll be all weird, or do things disorderly & inappropriate. It’s essential to proper practice, to have a proper perspective.

So all this time has been spent developing doctrine. We’ve seen the superiority of Christ & the N.C. as compared & contrasted w/the law & the O.C. in virtually every category. He outshines the angelic hosts, Moses, the law, again Joshua, the prophets, Aaron & the Levitical priestly order, He’s obtained a more excellent ministry, He’s the mediator of a better covenant, which has been established on better promises through the means of a greater sacrifice. Through the sacrifice of Christ we no longer focus on our failure as sinners, but His finished work as our Savior. He did for us what we could never do for ourselves; He provided the solution to our sin dilemma.

Vs 19-25

So as you can see it’s like the author here says, “Ok class, for all this time we’ve had our text books open so as to study up on the competency of Christ, the superiority & proficiency of Christ. Now it’s time to get out there & respond properly/practically to all that we’ve learned principally.” It’s like the question is anticipated, “Mr. author, I’m tracking w/you doctrinally, Christ is greater in everyway to the O.C....obviously, but how does this play out in my everyday activity?”

& He says here in Vs 19, “Therefore, brethren,” & as you well know by now (you could probably explain it better than I can) but this word, “therefore” is generally a transitional word. It’s that word that alerts us that we’re stepping out of the realm of principle & into the realm of practical. “In the light of all that we’ve come to realize, this is how we’re to respond.”

But then just before he launches into what we’re to be doing practically in light of all that we’ve learned doctrinally, he issues this summary parenthetically. (Read Vs 19b – 21)

You see it’s a quick reminder of what we’ve learned, exactly who Christ is & what He’s done for us. He’s our great/eternal High Priest (not after the order of Aaron but after the order of Melchizedek, Ch 7) He’s the Lamb of God w/out spot, w/out blemish whose blood was shed for the sins of the world, & He’s the living way through which we come into the very holiest of all, the presence of God Himself.”

& The 1st thing the Holy Spirit wants us to be aware of in coming into (entering) the holiest of all is that we’re to do so (notice) “...having boldness.”

Not w/arrogance; or a sense of personal worthiness as though I've done something to deserve to be there, that's not what this word "boldness" means. We're talking here about a free confidence, grounded on the consciousness that our sins have been forgiven. But what an indescribable blessing, we can come into the presence of God w/boldness, w/confidence. & Again not because of any work that I've done, or any sacrifice that I've made, but because of the blood of J.C. shed on my behalf, I come through the means of a perfect sacrifice that's accomplished for me perfect atonement.

Now we've rehearsed several times that on that 1 day, the High Holy day of the year, the Day of atonement the High Priest would enter into the holy of holies of the tabernacle. But believe me you it wasn't w/boldness that he entered in behind the veil. It was w/a sense of awe, & incredible fear & intimidation, because if things weren't done just right, (& I mean just right) be it ceremonially, sacrificially, in his life personally, he'd be struck dead. & When he emerged from the holy of holies he threw a big party for all his friends because he'd survived in the presence of God. There's nothing bold about that, it was w/quivering trepidation & reverent humiliation for fear of his very life that he entered into the Holiest. But because of the work of Christ we can come freely, confidently into the presence of God.

Vs20

Only one person was able to come by the old way, the High Priest, & only 1 day a yr for a brief & dutiful ceremony. But by the new way, through the new covenant all who are in Christ are invited to enter in & abide continually, every moment of everyday in His presence. Because we enter in through the way which He consecrated for us, which He prepared for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh. Remember last week how we observed the fact that in the volume of the book, all the scripture points to & is fulfilled in Christ? Here the author points out to us that even that veil that hung in the tabernacle, that article through which one would pass to come into the presence of God spoke of Christ. & So we begin to understand what Jesus meant when He said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep." John 10:7 & Again, "I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved," John 10:9 When He said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." John 14:6 That veil didn't grant one access into the Father's presence, it spoke of the place of Christ who would be the means through which we would approach Him. When His flesh was torn, when He laid down His life, both Matt & Mark record for us that the veil in the temple was torn from top to bottom. No, access isn't granted through a piece of material, but through Christ. & Of course it's a living way because Christ is alive having risen from the dead on that 3rd day.*

Vs21

Christ Himself insures complete & total access; He's the High Priest over the house of God. & So the idea here is that because there are such rich, steadfast & irrevocable resources available to us in Christ...

Vs22

What are we to do in light of all that Christ has done for us, everything He is on behalf of us? "Let us draw near..." We're to respond & react in humble thanksgiving by drawing near to God. He's made the way for us to have an ongoing intimate relationship w/the Father, hey, let's do it...

Listen; do you know why Jesus died on the cross? Do you know why He extends perfect righteousness, perfect cleansing to you? Do you know why He sits as our great High Priest enthroned in the heavens? Hey, it goes well beyond the fact of simply avoiding hell & entering heaven (as overwhelming as that is).

It goes beyond making a way for you & me to simply be apart of some blessing of the month club, or so that we might win friends & influence people. He did it all so that we might draw near to Him. & To think of how it must be to God, how it must feel for God after He's done all that He has for us, then we don't draw near to Him. But rather we distance ourselves from Him; we go weeks, or months w/out drawing near to Him. It's like we're on the, "Don't call me I'll call You, God" plan. & There He is, & it's like He's saying, "I did all this for you, I made a way for you where there was no way, I've extended grace & mercy when I'd be perfectly just to judge & condemn, I gave My only begotten Son to pay the penalty of death & incur My wrath which you deserve, because I love you... & you won't draw near to Me."

What's it going to take for you to consistently, persistently just draw near to God? I didn't say, "What's it going to take to get you to read your bible X-amount of time each day?" Or, "What's it going to take to get you on your face praying each & every day?" Push all that aside, God wants you to draw near to Him. Now, I want you to realize that I don't think you really can draw near to God apart from His word, or apart from prayer. But here's the catch, so often the enemy gets us caught up in the routine, in the regimen, & so we're all about getting our "bible time" rather than drawing near to God through the study of His Word. We search the scriptures because we think that in them we have life, but these are they which testify of Christ & we don't draw near to Him through them, we just do our duty & move on. Or we're all about making sure we start our day out w/a little prayer time, or working through our prayer list as opposed to really drawing near to God & seeking His heart through prayer. Oh that we would learn what it means to truly draw near to God.

These guys to whom this letter was originally written were going through some tough times. They were undergoing persecution, they were confronted by serious problems, being discouraged more than likely on a daily basis. & You can almost hear them, "I'm just confused, I don't know what to do, my family has rejected me, my boss has fired me, I'm just despondent & depressed, worn down & tired..." & The writer to the Hebrews is saying, "Listen, I'm hearing what you're saying; but I think your real problem is that you're just not drawing near... you're not drawing near to God through J.C." You see they were caught up in symptoms, they thought their problems were their turbulent times, their strained relationships, their economic hardships, whatever. The real problem was that their relationship w/God wasn't on track; they weren't drawing near to God on the basis of what Christ had done for them.

You guys I just can't emphasize this enough, if this would just come on like a light in our head, in our heart. Man what a breakthrough it would be if the next time I have a counseling appointment somebody would walk in & wouldn't say, "Man, that wife of mine, or oh, the husband of mine, you know that boss of mine, if it weren't for those parent's of mine..." But that they would simply sit down & say, "You know it's been so long since I've truly drawn near to the Lord & I just really feel like it's messing up everything in my life..."

Now, I would never seek to belittle, or take away from the severity of a struggle in a person's life. & Maybe right now hard times are upon you. But consider this; many people have gone through much, much more than you are or I ever will, & they've done so w/a great attitude glorifying the Lord. Time forbids us to give a bunch of examples but consider even Paul himself, lost everything because of his love for the Lord. Often in fear for his life, beaten, shipwrecked, w/out food or drink, imprisoned, at times cold & naked w/nothing to call his own. Yet his attitude was exemplary, & he glorified God w/all that was in him. What makes the difference?

He drew near to God. These people drew near to God in the midst of their circumstance. We think that the problems are due to the severity of the circumstance, but if God be for us who can be against us, if we draw near to the sovereign God of the universe what can't we endure? Make it a habit, the practice, the custom of your life, that you draw near to God.

In what manner? W/a true heart, w/honesty & integrity, "Lord I know who I am, where I've been & what I've done, but I trust in your sufficiency on behalf of me personally." You see, w/the full assurance of faith; we come boldly, fully assured of Christ's sufficiency, knowing that He's cleansed us inwardly & our lifestyle demonstrates that outwardly. "Our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience (the inward transformation) & our bodies washed w/pure water (the outward demonstration)." Whether these be a reference to the waters of baptism, or the washing of the water by the word of God (which is more of what I lean toward) the point remains the same. Jesus has done for you literally, spiritually, what those priests under the law had to go through ritualistically, repetitively. He's done in truth what they had to undergo in type, He's cleansed us.

Vs 23

#1 Let us draw near, #2 Let us hold fast. Hold fast the confession of our hope, Christ is your confession, you've confessed Christ, your hope is eternal life, that's the assured expectation, the concrete realization that you have in Christ, hold fast, because He who promised is faithful. Again notice the emphasis, it's not upon you, it's not upon me, it's upon Him. This covenant we've entered into w/God through Christ isn't based upon us, it's based upon Him, & He who promised is faithful. Faithful to keep that which has been committed to His trust, faithful to complete the work that He's begun in you. I'm so glad this whole thing isn't based upon my faithfulness, or I'd be in real trouble, but He who made the promise is faithful to His promise, He watches over His word to perform it (Jer 1:12).

Vs24

#1 Let us draw near, #2 Let us hold fast, & # 3 Let us consider one another. In light of all that Christ is, & all that He's done, let us have boldness to enter the holiest of all, let us draw near to God, let us hold fast to our confession, & let us consider one another. Notice that in each of those exhortations you don't find the singular pronoun, it's always in the plural, we don't see, "I" or "me" or "you" it's "us." "Let us, Let us, Let us." There are no lone rangers in Christianity, the bible never justifies isolation there's to be (what I call) a spiritual cross pollination. There's to be body life taking place between us as bro's & sis's in Christ. We're to consider (not ourselves) but one another, what for? In order to stir up (or provoke) love (which has to do w/the attitude) & good works (which has to do w/actions).

Vs 25

Now there's obviously lots of application we could draw from this, somewhere down the line someone came up w/the brilliant idea that you could still believe in God & not go to church. & We could take some time to hammer on that position (not saying that church is a legalistic trip) realizing that it's clear violation of the written word of God to forsake the assembling of ourselves together, & that the presupposed position of the NT is that believers are assembling corporately for the purpose of glorifying the Lord & building up the body. There are all kinds of Vs throughout the NT along the lines of "& When you gather..." it's just presupposed that we will, because God has ordained body life, the corporate structure of the church. But if you don't like hanging out w/believers now I don't know what you're going to think of heaven, it'll be full of them.

Other's think, "Well, I'll go to church when I need to." The problem w/that is not only that it lends itself to isolation, which lends itself to frustration & disillusionment, which lends itself to lethargy & complacency which can ultimately lead to abandonment, I've seen it over & over again. But that's not the only problem w/that position, the main problem is that it's self serving, not other's oriented. "I'll go when I need it."

I want you to realize something here & that is this, the primary motive mentioned here is the assembling together wasn't for what one could get out of it, but rather for what one could contribute to it. Provoking one another, stirring one another unto love & good works. There is so much to be gleaned & gained through body life, & so much to be lost apart from it. You guys there is a purpose for which we gather that goes way beyond getting in, getting a bible study, & getting out, sounds like a whole lot of getting your wanting & not much giving if that's your position. & If that's your aim in being here you're forfeiting so much, missing out on so much more that God wants to do for you & through you.

Unfortunately we're often times guilty of stirring contention, provoking hostility, biting & devouring one another, consuming one another, when the Lord would have us to stir one another unto love & good works. Not assembling primarily for what we can get but what we can give, how can I build up & edify this body that God's called me to? Where can I bless, serve & be involved, how can I be an encouragement & an example to my bro's & sis's? & All the more as we see the Day approaching, each day takes us closer to that day, we need each other. Vs26-31

This is another one of those bible passages that Satan just loves to preach from. Now I'm not going to spend a whole lot of time on it, however nor am I going to soften it up or lighten its load for us. Context is important, however it says what it says. & This is what it says, (read Vs 26).

Of course the question then that would qualify the statement would be, "What is willful sin?" Because there is a sense in which virtually every sin is willful, I mean, I pretty much know as a general rule when I'm doing something I shouldn't be, or saying something spitefully, or when I'm motivated selfishly. I mean, that's willful sin. But as we examine the context here's the general gist of what's being said. "When I come to know through reason & experience that J.C. is God's sacrifice for sin, I've received this knowledge, & yet I turn from it, refuse to acknowledge it, & decline to depend upon it for my right standing & forgiveness before God. There's nothing else that will merit my forgiveness, nothing else that will merit my righteousness, & all that's left for me is a certain (that is guaranteed) fearful expectation of judgment & fiery indignation that will consume those who've taken their stand against God."

& The specific context lends itself to turning from Jesus back to the Levitical sacrificial system for the atonement of my soul. These guys were feeling the pressure of persecution & because of it considering reverting to their old customs in order to just get it to stop. But he's saying if you turn your back on Christ, there's nothing else that can save you & all you've done is insult the Spirit of God who's led you to Christ, offended the Father who's given His Son for you. You've said in essence that Christ isn't sufficient for you, that His blood isn't any better than any other animal sacrifice if that good (since you're returning to that) & in so doing are trampling Him underfoot. Now, how do you think God's going to respond to that?

If the person who rejected the law of Moses died w/out mercy on the testimony of 2-3 witnesses, (being a lesser covenant) what do you think will become of the one who rejects J.C. the very Son of God (being a much greater covenant)?

“It’s a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” So it’s not saying, “If you struggle w/sin, or fall into sin, you’re going to hell.” It’s saying, “If you reject God’s Provision for your sin there’s no other alternative to make it to heaven.” The book of Colossians tells us that we have peace w/God through the blood of the cross of J.C. there’s no other way.

“So can I lose my salvation?” Hey, I lose my remote control, you don’t lose salvation, but you can leave it, you’ll always know right where it is, Christ is able to keep you no doubt, but He won’t force you against your will. If you don’t want to abide in Him you don’t have to, just know the alternative. & You can disagree w/my position there on freewill if you like, just make sure you have a scriptural reason for doing so.

Vs32-34

This is simply a plea for them to remember & return to their 1st love relationship w/Christ, repeat those 1st works. He says, “Hey after you came to Christ you went through so much, too much to throw in the towel now, you’ve come too far, & the best is yet ahead, don’t turn back.” It’s like when the Lord had some a bunch of disciples turn away from Him because they just couldn’t comprehend the fullness of who He was & the difficulties that came along w/following Him. & He looked at the 12 & said, “You guys wanna split to?” & Peter said, “Where else are we going to go Lord? You alone have the words of eternal life.” & The writer here is saying, “Think about it guys, where else are you going to go, Christ has given you eternal life. Sure it’s hard in the here & now, but eye hasn’t seen, ear hasn’t heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the good things that God has prepared for those who love Him. You just hold the line, no retreat, no surrender.”

Vs35

& Of course Christ is our confidence, don’t cast away your relationship w/Christ, maintain Christ confidence, your reward is sure in Him. & As we just mentioned it by far outweighs any present struggle you may be facing or ever will face. Paul told the Corinthians, “For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory,” ^{2 Cor 4:17} Which is another way of saying that the eternal reward that you’ll receive will by far outweigh any temporal loss that you might face, remember that.

Vs36-38

Now this quote from Habakkuk Ch 2 sets the stage for the entire next Ch so we won’t linger on it now, but suffice it to say for now that w/out faith it’s impossible to please God. It’s by faith that we come to Christ, it’s by faith that we abide in & walk w/Christ. & It’s difficult to walk w/Christ during difficult days when the reward seems so far away, yet the measure of your obedience, & my spiritual maturity is found in faithfulness during those days when the promise seems unfulfilled & far off at best. The just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him.

Vs39

He’s given them a heavy exhortation, but he resolves it w/an encouraging commendation. “Hey guys you’re teetering on some heavy things here, but you’re not there yet, & I know you’re not going to go there, you continue to press on by faith, don’t draw back, patiently persevere.” That’s God’s word to us this morning, don’t draw back, draw near, patiently persevere, so that after you’ve done the will of God, you’ve led your life in submission to Christ, for the glory of Christ, you may receive the promise. Behold He’s coming quickly & His reward is w/Him to give to everyone according to their work.

Prayer Points:

God it's our desire to walk in those works that You've prepared for us beforehand & be good & faithful servants to Your Word & Your will for us individually, & collectively as a body. Help us Lord that we not get caught up in reading a book rather than drawing near to You through Your Word, or punching out a prayer list rather than drawing near to You in Prayer. & God may we never waver, but help us to hold fast to our confession, know that You Lord are faithful. & Father be there anyone here wearing out, breaking down, running thin, may you renew them this morning that they leave here today remembering from where they've fallen, returning to their 1st love, & repeating their 1st works. Teach us God to draw near to You.

Perhaps you're here & you've never drawn near to God, you've never truly surrendered your heart to Christ & today God is dealing w/you. & You know it in your heart, God is calling out to you, pleading w/you by the cross of Christ that you might be reconciled to Him. You can have peace this morning w/God, but only through the blood of Christ, we come to God through Him, & through Him exclusively. Don't count His blood a common thing, His sacrifice as no better than some work that you can do to be ok in God's sight. Surrender to Him, hand your heart over to Him, & let Him forgive you of your sin & give you life.
