

A top-down view of a breakfast table. In the upper left, a green bowl contains white milk and several golden-brown ring-shaped cereal pieces. To the right, a white cup filled with dark coffee is held by a hand. A black smartphone is partially visible on the left. In the center, the word "Beyond" is written in a large, flowing, olive-green script, and "SUNDAY" is written below it in a bold, black, sans-serif font. To the right of the text is a cross-shaped toast. The background is a plain white surface with a few scattered cereal pieces and coffee stains.

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

Inclusive & Diverse Family

14 For the body does not consist of one member but of many.. . . 18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. 19 If all were a single member, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

One Body. Many Parts.

15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell?

Every Part Belongs & is Necessary

21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.

22 On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23 and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, 24 which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

Modest Parts Essential for Reproduction

25 that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. 26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. 27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it
