Genesis 6:1-8

MAN'S DISOBEDIENCE

1. The church spent six weeks over the summer turning to the scriptures to unmask fear, anxiety, & worry that plague our lives. What lessons did you learn and how were you encouraged in the renewing of your mind?

2. For many of us the concept of the glory of God can seem like this big abstract truth in which we don't regularly meditate upon. Consider the general revelation of God's glory (Psalm 19:1) and the particular revelation of God's glory (John 1:14). What comes to mind as you reflect upon these two passages?

3. Upon looking back over your summer, is there anything you would like to share which would highlight the Lord's work in your life or in the lives of those around you? Was there a specific prayer answered? A praise you want to share? A trial through which you grew more dependent upon the Lord?

4. How has the study of Genesis 6:1–8 shaped your view of God, His word, man, man's purpose, or each person's identity within the body of Christ? One way you might consider answering this is in regard to verse five where it speaks to the corruption of man.

5. What are you most thankful for currently?
