PSALM 100:1–5

1 Make a loud shout to Yahweh, all the earth. 2 Serve Yahweh with gladness; Come before Him with joyful songs. 3 Know that Yahweh, He is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. 4 Enter His gates with thanksgiving And His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him, bless His name. 5 For Yahweh is good; His lovingkindness endures forever And His faithfulness, generation unto generation.

THANKS BE TO YAHWEH

1. Which of the seven invitations (Exalt Him, Serve Him, Come to Him, Know Him, Offer thanks to Him, Give Thanks [aka confess] to Him, Bless Him) have you contemplated working on in your life this week? Are there any that seem impossible for you to heed the call?

2. The apex of the Psalm is to Know Yahweh, to know that He is God, to understand that we are His creation and that He cares for His creation. Ponder this truth and express in your own words how this shapes your desire to revere the Lord.

3. What would be one of the hinderances that cause you to reject these free invitations given? What would be one of the hinderances you have faced in other people's lives that they use as an excuse to reject these free invitations?

4. What can you do this week to cultivate a deeper relationship with Yahweh? Do you see that change as something short-term or a long-term?

5. Is there anything presently in your life that you know does not revere the Lord? Or something you believe you have been battling on your own but not finding victory? Please pray to God to help you overcome and seek out another mature believer to walk alongside you.
