DISCUSSION STARTER

What are some things that people in your life need reminding of over and over again?

TEXT TO READ Read 2 Peter 1:12–21 together.

PAY ATTENTION (verse 12)

1. Peter says he will keep reminding them of “these things.” Look back at verses 3–4 and 11. What in those verses would you be glad to hear again and again?

ACCEPT GOD’S REMINDERS AS A GRACIOUS GIFT (verses 12–15)

2. Peter uses the little time he has left to remind Christians of truths they already know. We can be established in the truth and still lose sight of it in daily life. Does that ring true for you? How?
3. Peter wants to “wake us up.” Looking back, what have you needed waking up from? Was it the pull of money, approval, status, control, pleasure, or something else?

LISTEN TO THE KING (verses 16–21)

4. What did Peter see and hear on the mountain? What does it show us about the Jesus whose return we await?
5. Peter expects God’s Word to instruct us while we wait for Jesus. We’ve heard “pay attention to the Bible” many times. How do we fight the urge to tune it out, hear it afresh, and let it direct the way we live?

BRINGING IT HOME

What is one truth from the letter of Second Peter that we should be reminding one another of again and again?
