

A Living Hope: Defending the Faith Without Being Defensive

How To Live In Exile

1 Peter 1:17–21

The Lord's Day Morning

June 28, 2020

Though the believers to whom Peter wrote were born and raised in northern Asia Minor (modern Turkey) Paul refers to them as exiles. The address of their house is not their true home. As children of God, their home is with their Father in heaven. While on the earth we are called to love our country by pledging our highest allegiance to Christ and living by his laws. This will often attract the world's hostility and the temptation to betray Christ and compromise the gospel will be strong. In those times, cling to these truths:

1. We are _____ for our conduct in the final _____ (17).
2. We are _____ in God's sight because of the final _____ (18–19).
3. We are _____ for eternity because of God's final _____ (20–21).

