How do you move your relationships through this process toward the gospel?

There is one most powerful skill to develop as you help someone journey towards Christ.

	a redemptive relationship moves past the surface and into conversations that the personal level, two things happen:
1.	are changed
2.	are changed
Soho	w do you move into those deeper conversations?
BIG LE	SSON: Learn to Use
like Je	esus did
	When the right question is asked, the listener is suddenly a They are immediately personally involved in the conversation at the they want to be.
Kinds o	f questions Jesus asked:
1.	Questions for
2.	questions
3.	questions
4.	questions
5.	questions

6. _____ questions

Some examples:
 Matthew 12:9-12 Matthew 22:41-46 Luke 10:25-37 Luke 15
Questions:
 Show respect
 Are non-confrontational
 Keep you from monologue
– Help people open up
 Force people to interact with (not just ignore/reject) the truth
 Help you get to the real issue holding this person back
Key Principle:

People ______ to statements, but they _____ with questions

Interac	t:
What are some things you have personally encountered that keep people you are trying to reach from being open to faith in Jesus?
All thro	ugh this coming week
Try to ask a	a thoughtful question of each person you encounter
•	"How is work going for you? What are you focused on these days?"
•	"What are you most excited about in your life right now?"
•	"What did you take away from this morning's sermon—what spoke to you?"
•	"How did you spend your weekend?"
•	"What did you learn from that experience?"
•	"What do you think about(fill in whatever you want)?"
•	"You've achieved a lot alreadywhat are your dreams going forward?"
•	"How are you growing?"
