pro·cras·ti·nate: to be slow or late about doing something that should be done: to delay doing something until a later time because you do not want to do it, because you are lazy, etc. (Merriam-Webster).

Paul’s Reasonable Faith Built on the Load–Bearing Wall of the Resurrection

1. Righteousness: Only those who trust in Christ alone are declared righteous.
2. Self-Control: The evidence that someone has trusted Christ alone is saying “no” to sinful desires.
3. Judgment: The only way to face the final judgment with confidence is faith in Christ alone.

Three Bad Reasons To Put Off The Decision to Trust In Christ Alone
