“The Heart of Biblical Counseling”

The Lord’s Day Morning

June 3, 2018

2 Corinthians 5:14-15

“For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.”

The fundamental truth of Scripture is that as believers we are not our own. We have been purchased with a price. Our identity is linked with and controlled by the one who redeemed us.

Four Basic Principles of Biblical Counseling

1. Relationships are rooted in _____ and not our _____.
2. The _____ of sin is _____.
3. The Christian life is a constant battle between the kingdom of _____ and the kingdom of _____.
4. True _____ always _____ something.
