Christian parents recognize their responsibility to prepare their children for marriage. Included in that preparation is teaching them what to look for in a marriage partner. The first criterion to look for is whether or not potential partners “belong to Christ Jesus” (Gal. 5:24). But how do you know if a person belongs to Jesus? There are four areas to examine:

1. _____ : Are they shamelessly
_____ the gospel?

2. _____ : Are they progressively _____ like Jesus?

3. _____ : Are they actively
_____ a local church?

4. _____ : Are they exclusively _____ marriage to someone who belongs to Jesus?
