

Semper Reformanda: The Church That Is Always Reforming

William Tyndale: How the English Bible Changed the World

1 Timothy 4:13; 5:18; 2 Timothy 3:14–17

The Lord's Day Morning

Reformation Sunday | October 27, 2019

This tablet was placed here ... in thankful commemoration of William Tyndale, B:1490 D:1536, translator of the Holy Scriptures into the language of the English people. A martyr and exile in the cause of liberty and pure religion, he fulfilled the precept which he had taught, "There is none other way into the kingdom of life than through persecution and suffering of pain and of very death after the example of Christ".

–Memorial in London's Westminster Abbey

Paul's Message to Timothy on Scripture

1. _____: Scripture must be read in the language of the people (1 Tim. 4:13).
2. _____: Scripture includes both the Old and New Testaments (1 Tim. 5:18).
3. _____: Scripture is the final authority over all other authorities (2 Tim. 3:14–16).
4. _____: Scripture provides all we need to know God and do his will (2 Tim. 3:17).

Tyndale's Application: The Bible is worth my:

1. The Bible is worth my diligent _____.
2. The Bible is worth my social _____.
3. The Bible is worth my unjust _____.