

Home: A Guide for Flourishing in the Family of God

“Enjoy Money by Guarding the Gospel”

1 Timothy 6:17–21

The Lord’s Day Morning

June 4, 2023

As Paul brings his letter to a close, he gives Timothy two final assignments in view of the certain return of the Lord Jesus Christ (6:14–15): First, charge the rich to be generous with the money God has entrusted to them. Second, guard the apostolic teaching that God has entrusted to Timothy.

1. Manage God’s _____ by generously and wisely entrusting it to others.

1.1. Two diseases of the rich: Unwarranted _____ and misplaced _____.

1.2. Two treatments for the rich: Invest time in _____ and invest money in _____.

2. Guard God’s _____ in view of Christ’s return by generously and wisely entrusting it to others.

2.1. The doctrine of the trinity

2.2. The deity of Christ

2.3. The law (what God requires).

2.4. The gospel (what God provides).

2.5. The relationship between law and gospel

2.6. The identification and confrontation of false teachers

2.7. The exclusivity of the gospel

2.8. The centrality of the resurrection

2.9. The authority of Scripture

2.10. The sin of abortion

2.11. The definition of marriage

2.12. The Christian sexual ethic.

2.13. The abolition of slavery.

2.14. The sins of partiality and racism.

2.15. The church’s role in adoption, foster care, and widow care.

2.16. The relationship between church and state

2.17. The reasons for deconstruction (departing the faith)

2.18. The role of men and women in the church

2.19. The organization of the church

2.20. The qualifications and function of elders and deacons

2.21. The priority of character-based (above reproach) leadership.

2.22. The accountability of church leaders

2.23. The principle of Biblical tension

2.24. The return of Jesus Christ

2.25. The privilege of financial stewardship.