The fascinating story of Balaam and his donkey is one of the most cited incidents from Numbers in the New Testament. From four New Testament references we can draw four principles that will make us more discerning and less gullible Christians.

1. Corrupt leaders in _____ and _____ commonly use each other (2 Peter 2:15).
2. False prophets say enough _____ to make the _____ seem true (Rev. 2:14).
3. God’s grace is not a _____ to break God’s _____ (Jude 11).
4. When the enemy fails at violent _____ he turns to seductive _____ (1 Cor. 10:8).
