You reap what you sow. 2. You reap more than you sow. 3. You reap after you sow. Group Values: Authenticity – Be honest. As you share together, learn to build trust with one another. Accountability – Give permission for others to ask you questions about your life. Safety – NO gossip. However, if someone is in danger, putting someone in danger, or through their inaction causing a person to be in danger then it must be reported. | Sharing with six questions Pray for the Spirit's guidance and direction together. Read the Key Scripture Passage. Discuss each question, giving time for all to respond. Silence may be required sometimes to give time for all to process the questions. Answer the following questions together as a group <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do we learn about God from this passage? • What do I learn about people? • Is there a sin to avoid? • Is there a promise to trust? • Is there a command to obey? • Is there an example to follow? For Discussion: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. How do you see yourself in 5 years? 10 years? 20 years? 2. How would you describe the difference between conforming and transforming? 3. What do your habits, actions, and decisions seem to be sowing today? 4. What do you think you need to change today for a better tomorrow? 5. Have you felt like giving up before when you tried to make changes for the better? Why do you think you felt that way? Have you ever given up - only to regret that you did later in life? 6. To wrap up this series, what is God calling you to be? What is your "spiritual who" that made you? A father? A wife? A leader? A voice for good? How can you sow righteousness now for a harvest later? Pray as a group for God to lead all the people of the group. Ask Him to to each person what areas need change, and where you need to surrender to Him to have His power work through each of you. |

The Power to Change
You... Just later.
