

Sermon Notes: 2 Samuel 11-12

“The greatest trials are not in adversity but in prosperity. For then we forget God.”
Martyn Lloyd Jones

“There is nothing more calculated to drive a person away from God than earthly prosperity.” JC Ryle

“You rarely fall into big sin first. You drift by neglecting what God has called you to — and that drift leads to disaster.” Kevin Deyoung

“You fight sin not mainly by saying no to wrong things, but by saying yes to the right things. Sin grows where duty is neglected.” John Piper

“Sin always begins subtly. You give Satan an inch, and he will take a mile.” Charles Spurgeon

“Don’t ever be surprised at what you are capable of.” Dale Ralph Davis

“God does not allow His children to sin successfully.” Charles Spurgeon

“We judge others by their worst actions and ourselves by our best intentions.” Tim Keller

“Be more concerned with your own sin than the sin of others.” AW Tozer

“There is more mercy in Christ than sin in us.” Richard Sibbes

“Your best days are never so good that you are beyond the need of God's grace and your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God’s grace.”
Jerry Bridges
