

Sermon Notes: Philippians 3:20-21

“Christianity is in its very essence a resurrection religion. The concept of resurrection lies at its heart. If you remove it, Christianity is destroyed.” John Stott

“I am not suffering anything that a good resurrection can’t fix.” DA Carson

“There is more evidence that Jesus rose from the dead than there is that Julius Caesar ever lived or that Alexander the Great died at the age of thirty-three.” Billy Graham

“Something very strange happened on Easter morning because how do we explain the fact that this man gets crucified by the Romans and then people claim to see him after he died... maybe they’re lying, but very rarely are people willing to die for beliefs that they don’t actually believe themselves.” Alex O’Connor

“If you don’t believe in the resurrection, you will be forced to believe that something hit the disciples that was every bit as amazing—maybe different, yet of equal force in its electrifying intensity...you will find yourself making leaps of faith as great as if you had believed in the resurrection.” Shusaku Endo

“The resurrection is the beginning of God’s new project, to renew the world.” NT Wright

“If Jesus is able to subject all things, how much more is He able to change your body?!”
John Chrysostom

“The body we shall have will be the same body, yet changed... no longer weak, sickly, and dying, but strong, healthy, and incapable of decay. It will be perfectly adapted to the life of the age to come, fitted for the enjoyment of God and for the service of His glory forever.” JI Packer

“We ought to meditate upon the resurrection of Christ, not only once a year, but every day of our lives.” John Calvin
