

Sermon Notes: 2 Samuel 13-20

Big Idea: What you plant today is what you will harvest one day.

Passivity allows evil to flourish.

“Sometimes a man who does nothing is as harmful as the man who does the wrong thing.” Marshall Segal

“Evil does not need enthusiastic helpers. It only needs passive bystanders.” Martin Luther King Jr

Sin will reap a harvest more bitter than you can imagine.

“Sin is suicidal: it kills joy, it kills relationships, it kills the soul. It is never worth what it promises.” John Piper

“When a man truly repents, his past does not haunt him to despair — it humbles him to worship. The scars of sin become memorials of mercy.” Charles Spurgeon

“There are no hopeless cases in the kingdom of God. The moment a man believes in Christ, everything changes.” Martyn Lloyd Jones
