

"Words About Adam"
 From his Friends & Family
 Created by Cameron & Taryn Hunt

For those of you who didn't have the pleasure of knowing my brother Adam, you most likely still had an Adam. Adam was the kid helping you with homework because your teacher would rather be anywhere than in a classroom. Adam was the coworker who cracked enough jokes to make the shift bearable. Adam was the friend who never let you have a bad day alone. Give your Adam a little extra love today. -Meredith Hunt

ADAM RYALS HUNT

Adam Ryals Hunt passed away on June 24, 2022 in Orlando, Florida. Adam was born on March 6, 1995 in Greensboro, North Carolina to Eddie(Ed) and Jerre Ryals Hunt. He attended Clay County Florida Schools and graduated from Fleming Island High School in 2013. Adam received his Bachelor of Arts in French from the University of North Florida and his Master's of Arts Degree in Public History at Florida State University May of 2020. During Adam's time of study in Early Modern French History, he worked in Special Collections with the Reichelt Oral History Collection and the French Revolution and Napoleon Collection. During this time he realized he wanted to be an Archivist so made the switch to Public History. Following graduation, Adam was employed by Florida State University in the Libraries Special Collections and Archives Department and had recently taken a position with the University of Central Florida in Orlando as an Archivist. Adam was a talented guitarist, a lover of art, history, creative cooking and most important to him was his cat, Blitzen. Adam never met a stranger and had love and compassion for everyone.

Adam is survived by his parents, Ed and Jerre Hunt of Fleming Island, Florida, a sister Meredith Hunt of Fleming Island, brother and sister in law Cameron and Taryn Hunt and nephew Cayden of Jacksonville, Florida and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who loved him dearly. Adam was the grandson of the late Edgar and Charlotte Hunt of Denton, North Carolina and Preston and Rosalyn Ryals of Benson, North Carolina.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Fleming Island United Methodist Church on Saturday, July 9 at 11:00 a.m. The family will receive friends at Grace Place on the Church property immediately following the service. Lunch will be served and all are welcome to attend. A private committal service will be held at Oak Lawn Cemetery, Jacksonville, Florida.

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to any of the following or the charity of your choice. Hungry for Music: <https://hungryformusic.org/make-a-dedication-donation> St. George's Island Cat Allies: <https://www.sgicatallies.com/about> Fleming Island High School, Fleming Island, Florida to go towards the Adam Ryals Hunt History Scholarship.
