POINT

¹ Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer. ² And a man who had been lame from his mother's womb was being carried along, whom they used to set down every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, in order to beg alms of those who were entering the temple. ³ When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking to receive alms. ⁴ But Peter, along with John, fixed his gaze on him and said, "Look at us!"

Acts 3:1-16

⁵ And he began to give them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶ But Peter said, “I do not possess silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—walk!” ⁷ And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened. ⁸ With a leap he stood upright and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

Acts 3:1-16

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God; 10 and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:1-16

The background of the slide features a vibrant sunset or sunrise sky, transitioning from a deep purple at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a gnarled trunk and sparse foliage. The overall mood is contemplative and dramatic.

“A disabled person was not only an economic liability to the family, but also an enormous economic drain on the society. Sadly, many of these stigmatized “liabilities” were victims of infanticide in the pagan world. In the Jewish world, however, killing a disabled infant was strictly forbidden.

R. Albert Mohler, Jr

The background of the slide is a sunset scene. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a thick trunk and some branches. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

As He passed by, He saw a man blind from birth. ² And His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?” ³ Jesus answered, “It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was so that the works of God might be displayed in him.

John 9:1-3

The background of the slide is a sunset scene. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a vibrant orange and red near the horizon. A dark silhouette of a tree is visible on the right side, and a dark, silhouetted landmass or body of water is at the bottom.

“we should expect the right things from God. We are often much too ready to settle for much less than God wants to give to us, and our low expectations often rob us.”

David Guzik

¹¹ While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at the so-called portico of Solomon, full of amazement. ¹² But when Peter saw this, he replied to the people, “Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this, or why do you gaze at us, as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk?”

Acts 3:1-16

¹³ The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus, the one whom you delivered and disowned in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴ But you disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, ¹⁵ but put to death the Prince of life, the one whom God raised from the dead, a fact to which we are witnesses.

Acts 3:1-16

¹⁶ And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

Acts 3:1-16

“For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol;
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.”

Psalm 16:10

“So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.”

Romans 10:17

The background of the slide features a vibrant sunset or sunrise sky, transitioning from a deep blue at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a spreading canopy, standing on a dark, rocky outcrop. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

“It is not the Church’s business in this world to simply make the present condition more bearable; the task of the Church is to release here on earth the redemptive work of God in Christ.”
