

What Shall We Do?

³⁷ Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brethren, what shall we do?” ³⁸ Peter said to them, “Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself.”

Acts 2:37-47

⁴⁰ And with many other words he solemnly testified and kept on exhorting them, saying, “Be saved from this perverse generation!” ⁴¹ So then, those who had received his word were baptized; and that day there were added about three thousand souls. ⁴² They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

Acts 2:37-47

⁷ But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you. ⁸ And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment; ⁹ concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; ¹⁰ and concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father and you no longer see Me; ¹¹ and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

John 16:7-11

“The people were “cut to the heart” at the awful realization that in crucifying the long-awaited Messiah they had rejected their only hope of salvation. So with deep anguish they cried out, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

Richard Longenecker

“Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins.”

Acts 2:38a

“Repentance involves understanding something about us—namely, that we are sinners who have rebelled against God. And this is a source of grief. But true repentance also involves seeing the beauty of Christ. And this is a source of great joy.”

Chris Brauns

⁸ Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, ⁹ knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer is master over Him. ¹⁰ For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God. ¹¹ Even so consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:8-11

“For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself.”

Acts 2:39

“Once in introducing Richard Wurmbrand, I described my church as a Bible-believing church. He stopped me, paused, and said slowly, “Are you a Bible-living church?”

R. Kent Hughes

⁴³ Everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles.
⁴⁴ And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common; ⁴⁵ and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need.

Acts 2:37-47

⁴⁶ Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, ⁴⁷ praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

In the lower right foreground, there is a dark silhouette of a rocky outcrop with a large, gnarled tree growing on it. The tree's branches are spread out, and its leaves are also in silhouette. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for You are with me;

Psalm 23:4

“Everything God does is wonderful...until we get used to it.”
