

Peter Speaks

¹³ But others were mocking and saying, “They are full of sweet wine.”

¹⁴ But Peter, taking his stand with the eleven, raised his voice and declared to them: “Men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you and give heed to my words. ¹⁵ For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only the third hour of the day; ¹⁶ but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:13-36

¹⁷ 'And it shall be in the last days,' God says,
'That I will pour forth of My Spirit on all mankind;
And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
And your young men shall see visions,
And your old men shall dream dreams;
¹⁸ Even on My bondslaves, both men and women,
I will in those days pour forth of My Spirit
And they shall prophesy.

Acts 2:13-36

¹⁹ 'And I will grant wonders in the sky above
And signs on the earth below,
Blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke.

²⁰ 'The sun will be turned into darkness
And the moon into blood,
Before the great and glorious day of the Lord shall come.

²¹ 'And it shall be that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

Acts 2:13-36

Most Jews – pious or not – did not eat or drink until after the third hour of the day, because that was the time for prayer, and they would only eat after their business with God was accomplished.

Adam Clarke

²² “Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man attested to you by God with miracles and wonders and signs which God performed through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves know— ²³ this Man, delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death. ²⁴ But God raised Him up again, putting an end to the agony of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held in its power.

Acts 2:13-36

²⁵ For David says of Him,

‘I saw the Lord always in my presence;
For He is at my right hand, so that I will not be shaken.

²⁶ ‘Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue exulted;
Moreover my flesh also will live in hope;

²⁷ Because You will not abandon my soul to Hades,
Nor allow Your Holy One to undergo decay.

²⁸ ‘You have made known to me the ways of life;
You will make me full of gladness with Your presence.’

Acts 2:13-36

The background of the slide is a vibrant sunset or sunrise. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a thick trunk and several branches. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

“³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, ⁴ just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him.”

Ephesians 1:3-4

The background of the slide features a vibrant sunset or sunrise sky, transitioning from a deep purple at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a thick trunk and several branches, some of which are bare. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

“⁸ Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel according to the power of God, ⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,”

2 Timothy 1:8-9

“I saw the LORD always before me,
for He is at my right hand that I may not be shaken;
26 therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
my flesh also will dwell in hope.
27 For You will not abandon my soul to Hades,
or let your Holy One see corruption.
28 You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

Acts 2:25-28

³⁶ For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid among his fathers and underwent decay; ³⁷ but He whom God raised did not undergo decay.

Acts 13:36-37

²⁹ “Brethren, I may confidently say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰ And so, because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat one of his descendants on his throne, ³¹ he looked ahead and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that He was neither abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh suffer decay. ³² This Jesus God raised up again, to which we are all witnesses.

Acts 2:13-36

³³ Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured forth this which you both see and hear. ³⁴ For it was not David who ascended into heaven, but he himself says:

‘The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand,
³⁵ Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”’

Acts 2:13-36

³⁶ Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Acts 2:13-36

The background of the image is a sunset or sunrise scene. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a vibrant orange and yellow near the horizon. On the right side, there is a dark silhouette of a tree with a spreading canopy, standing on a rocky outcrop. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

The LORD says to my Lord:
“Sit at My right hand
Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”

Psalm 110:1

I want you to notice that “The early church had none of the things that we think are so essential for success today – buildings, money, political influence, social status - and yet the church won multitudes to Christ and saw many churches established throughout the Roman world.”

Warren Wiersbe

Peter Speaks

Peter defends his brothers and then he preaches the gospel message to the crowds. God showed you His Son and you had Him nailed to a cross by godless people. Again, God stepped in and raised His Son from the dead and seated Him at His right side. We are to know that God made Him both Lord and Christ.

Acts 2:13-36
