

News from Kindergarten

Feb. 8, 2024

Dear Parents,

Please consider donating to the annual fund. When our whole class participates, we get a free dress day.

Next week is Spirit Week. Everyday has a fun dress up theme.

Monday: mythical Monday: unicorns, fairies, cyclops, dragons, etc

Tuesday: wear your favorite sports team and jeans.

Wednesday: Valentine's Day shirts or colors with uniform bottoms.

Thursday: Eagle Spirit (house shirt, Eagle shirt, green polo) with jeans or uniform bottoms.

Friday: Decades Day

Our Valentines party is Wednesday from 2:30-3:00. We have 18 students. Please send 18 valentines.

Now is time to re-enroll for next year. Registration will go up at the end of the month.

You may also register for summer camp at this time. It is for scholars in 4th grade and below.

On Feb. 22, from 9:30-10:15, we will celebrate Go Texan Day with a few songs and a presentation from Mr. Pat Gavin. Parents are invited to come and join us.

We have a field trip coming up on Mar. 5. Cost is $ 12 a person to see the play Stuart Little at Main Street Theater. You will be billed through Facts. Please email me if you would like to chaperone.

This week:

Religion: Jesus teaches and preaches. We can find what Jesus taught in the Bible. It is important for us to know what Jesus says. His words are still true today.

Math: adding 10s, counting by tens

L.A. : letter n

Literature: Happy Birthday, Moon, You Are the First Kid on Mars, The Best Nest, No, David, No,, Stuart Little

History: The Return of Assyria

Science: Uranus and Neptune

Next Week

Memory: week 24

“Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.”

Math: Counting hundreds

L.A. Letter e

History: Babylon takes over

Science: finish up planets, begin Texas

In His Service,

Debbie Armstrong

OUR SAVIOR
LUTHERAN SCHOOL