

SCIENTIA ET MATHEMATICA

OUR SAVIOR QUADRIVIUM

Logic Science

Rocks

Scholars will take a deeper look at rocks. We will discover the different types of rocks, how they are formed, and more!

Science Labs

We will be able to classify any rock by its structure and hardness during our labs this week. The types of rock can be igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic.

6th Grade Math

Scholars are completing their last set of new computations: dividing decimals. Once we know how to add, subtract, multiply, and divide decimals, we will be able to solve algebraic problems and apply the computations to real world problems.

Algebra I

In Algebra, scholars are dividing polynomials using long division. This is a tedious process, but an effective tool for Algebra II in finding roots.

Encourage your scholar to take their time on each problem.

Donut Fridays

This friday, February 28th 7th Grade families will continue to raise funds for their Washington, DC trip.
$1 each (Cash Only).

Need Extra Credit?

Math - A rectangular garden bed is 10 feet long and 5 feet wide. If you want to plant a border of flowers around the edge that is 1 foot wide, what is the total area of the flower border, and how many square feet of space will be left in the center for other plants

Reminder of School Uniform Policies

Brrrrrr! It's cold. Please review the following school uniform policies to ensure that your scholar is in compliance.

- No undershirt may extend past the uniform shirt sleeve.
- No long tights or leggings under shorts. Please wear pants.
- Girls may wear solid white, gray, navy, or hunter green opaque tights with feet with skirts.
- School uniform sweaters and jackets may be worn in buildings during class.
- Warmer jackets (non-OSL) may only be worn for outside play or other times spent outdoors.

Don't forget to check our Resale Shop for items that may help you through these colder days.

Come to the school office and we will direct you.
