

Salvete!

I am so very thankful for such flexibility from everyone! Thank you for allowing us to enjoy “Because of Winn Dixie” together after such disappointing news! The kids really loved it. We are working our way through Little House in the Big Woods, learning about money with dollars and change, wrapping up our study of the human body, plague and a devastating fire in England, and finished up with contractions. We are now practicing for our Christmas program. I look forward to this season of Christmas with your children.
