It's Back!

Join in the Fun of Summer Reading!

Ask your scholar for the printed booklet outlining the Summer Reading Challenge for this summer. If your copy gets lost, use the files below to print your own copy to use all summer long. The grade level for the challenge should be the grade your scholar will be in during the upcoming 2025-2026 school year.

🎵 Free Concert 🎵

Friday, May 23

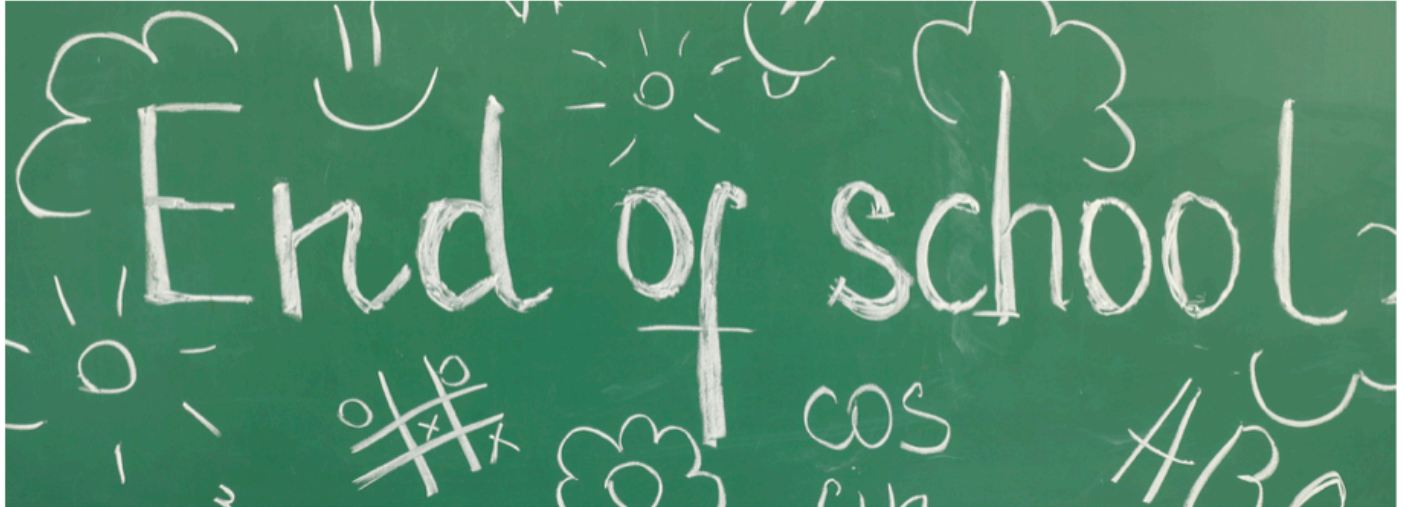

All are welcome to attend a free cello concert given by one of our very talented OSL church members. Start your summer vacation off with a real treat of beautiful music. Hope to see you there!

Nathan Russ eagerly invites you to attend his Junior cello recital!

In addition to solo works by Bach and Dvorak, Nathan will be joined by several talented student musicians, performing selections from chamber works by Brahms and Schubert.

Please join Nathan in the church sanctuary on Friday, May 23 at 6:00 pm.

It's Almost Summer Break!

Before you get into summer vacation mode, be sure to take care of all the end of year details! Please...

- Return ALL Library Books and pay outstanding fines (if any)
- Return Sports Uniforms
- Pay any outstanding charges in your FACTS account.
- Check Lost & Found - all items not claimed by year end will be donated or moved to resale.
- Collect medications stored in school office.
