

Week 8

Trinity 15

Next week we will be finishing up with folk tales and will begin reading Prairie School by Avi. We started studying Ancient Egypt in History and tried our hand at writing in hieroglyphics. Can you imagine learning 2,000 characters in order to write? Makes you thankful for our twenty-six letters! Mrs. Lazenby and I are putting the finishing touches on the details for the scarecrow contest. Stay tuned for more information.

Please make sure to read the parent newsletter from OSL so you don't miss any important information or exciting opportunities!

Yours in Christ,

Memory for the week of September 29th:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth.

What does this mean?

I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes and ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still takes care of them. He also gives me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, animals, and all that I have.

He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life. He defends me against all danger and guards and protects me from all evil. All this He does only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.
