

Week 7.

Ms. Theis' 3rd Grade Newsletter

Trinity 14

Weekly News

We began Lesson 3 this week in Latin. For the quiz on Friday, September 26, the scholars will need to know the vocabulary, the Latin saying, and be able to decline the word "mensa". In literature, we read "The Hayloft" and reviewed A Bear Called Paddington. The final test will be on September 26. This week, we read about Bar-Kokhba and the Apostles' Creed in history. In religion, we read about Jacob and his family.

The class would like to thank Riley, Harper, and their families for enriching our study of A Bear Called Paddington. Riley and her mom made marmalade for the class. Harper shared fudge her mom bought in London.

We went to the library this week. Our next library time will be on Wednesday, October 1. The scholars will need to return their library books by that day to avoid any late fees and to be able to check out a book. Thanks again to Mrs. Barchie for volunteering to be our librarian this year.

School pictures are going home today.

Please remember that scholars are responsible for any work they miss when they are absent or pulled from class.

Please note that trading food at lunch is against school policy.

Grandparents/VIP Day is Friday, October 10. If your child is planning on having guests that day, please see the school newsletter about submitting their names ahead of time so that badges may be printed. There will be an early dismissal at 11:30am that day. There will be NO afternoon bus service that day as well.

REMINDER: Scholars are not to have smart devices. If a smart device is discovered, it will be sent to the office for you to pick up.

Scholars should not bring toys (including balls) to school. If toys are brought, scholars are responsible for their loss or destruction.

New member classes have begun. This is the perfect class to attend if you want to learn more about the Lutheran church's teachings and beliefs or about what your child is learning in school. You are not obligated to join the church.

Please remember to check the parent handbook for this year to ensure scholars are following the dress code.

Chapel is every Wednesday at 8:15am. Scholars are invited to participate in the weekly offerings. Families are also invited to join us every Sunday for worship at 9:30am.

Memory Work

The Close of the Commandments

What does God say about all these commandments?

He says: I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing love to a thousand generations of those who keep My commandments.

What does this mean?

God threatens to punish all who break these commandments. Therefore, we should fear his wrath and not do anything against them. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep these commandments. Therefore, we should also love and trust in Him and gladly do what He commands.

Bible Verse

For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it.
James 2:10
