

PRESCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Preschool families,

We have had a great week of preschool! We are learning our new schedule and rules of the classroom. We are still working on walking in a line, using our speaking voices in side the building, and keeping our hands to ourselves. Next week we will begin learning that the letter a makes the /d/ sound. I also read from the Story Bible. We read about Abraham and Sarah and God's promise to them. Next week we will be learning about Jacob and Esau. The class enjoyed out door learning as we hunted for spider webs after reading a spider story. They created some nice art stamping with blocks, which will be coming home next week. Have a blessed weekend!
