

LITERATUS LINGUA

MRS. WEIDER

Grammar/ Literature

This week scholars will begin chapter 3 of their Shurley English curriculum. We will introduce prepositions and prepositional phrases. One area that sometimes confuses students is prepositions vs. adverbs. We will discuss the difference and identify a trusty method to determine a preposition from an adverb (hint: the preposition always has an object!).

In literature, we are finally at the point to start Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. Julius Caesar is an excellent introduction to Shakespeare and I know that the scholars are going to enjoy acting out this marvelous play!

Classes:

Pastor White: "Apocrypha The Hidden Books" – Four hundred years passed between Malachi at the end of the Old Testament and Matthew at the beginning of the New Testament. During these long centuries hundreds of books were written within Judaism which claimed to come from God. Filled with fascinating history and often bizarre theology they remain a fascinating part of the heritage of Judaism and Christianity. This introductory study will help you find the "Hidden Books" of the Apocrypha!

Jeff Armstrong: Comparative Religions – Find out what our fellow Christian brothers and sisters believe. Where are we united and where do we differ?

Jackie Lowery: Crochet 101 – Learning the basics

From the Principal's Desk – Unpacking Classical Learning – Join Principal Thoeke for a behind-the-scenes look at the heart of learning at Our Savior Lutheran School. In this engaging series, you'll explore the why behind what we teach—uncovering the purpose, philosophy, and power of a Classical Lutheran education. Whether you're new to classical education or simply curious about what sets Our Savior apart, this series offers a clear, thoughtful, and inspiring look into the curriculum and culture that define our school. Topics will include:

1. From Calling to Classroom: The Heart of Classical Lutheran Education & the Art of Growing Great Teachers
2. Lingua Latina: Unlocking Minds, One Word at a Time
3. From Counting to Conquering: The Path of Mastery Math
4. Not One-Size-Fits-All: Assessing to Support Every Mind
5. Forming Bodies and Minds: The Joy of Play, the Gift of Limits

Child care is provided. If you have any questions, please contact Pastor Cholak.

Julius Caesar statue (1930) on Via dei Fori Imperiali in Rome.

Julius Caesar ruled from 49 until his assassination in 44 BC. He is remembered for many reasons; perhaps the most famous being his decision to define the Roman Senate and “cross the Rubicon”.

Welcome to Quarter 2!

As difficult as it may be to believe, we are now fully into the school year and entering into the second quarter of the year. While quarter 1 is a time of learning and practicing procedures, quarter 2 is a time of working diligently to become a successful Logic scholar.

Here are some suggestions for student success:

1. If you are well, be in class to receive instruction. I do not send home assignments very often, but the class time is full of important instruction and it can be difficult to have successful “make-up” sessions with students one-on-one.
2. Even when there is no written assignment, review vocabulary words, main ideas, and/or written notes from the class time.
3. When offered the opportunity to complete extra credit assignments, take it! Do the vocabulary cards or complete the study guide even though it isn’t absolutely required. It will help prepare you and it will give you the chance to practice important study skills.
4. Use your planner in and out of school. Make sure that you write down all of the upcoming assignments. Use that information to plan your study time.
