
LITERATUS LINGUA

MRS. WEIDER

Grammar/Literature

We will continue chapter 14 in our Shurley English book and move to verbs- yes, again. Verbs are such an important part of the English language. They have the power to change a sentence in one word.

As we continue on with Daniel's story, we finally see the struggle between hatred and love come to a point. Jesus shows him that love is the only way to live, and his friend Samson sacrifices himself for Daniel. Both of these events create a struggle within Daniel that we will see resolved next week.

We discussed the central conflict of this story and decided together that it was man v. God OR man v. Himself. Though Daniel is desiring to hate and to avenge, Jesus stops him with commands to love and forgive.

God's blessings!

This year has been such a blessing for me as an educator! As a Lutheran educator, I have been in Lutheran schools before, but not in quite a few years. It was wonderful to be in the company of those who believe and confess the same truths which guide my life. Furthermore, I have enjoyed the grade 6 students so much! They were such willing participants when I asked them to put on the Julius Caesar play, they went along with my love of poetry when we read The Hobbit, and they worked so diligently when we wrote essays.

I wanted to make sure that all of the parents know that I will not be returning to OSL next year. This has nothing to do with OSL. There are many wonderful people and things about this school. I will hold all of the students in my heart, and I look forward to hearing about their continued growth over the next two years at OSL!

Contact Me:

sweider@oslschool.org

636-577-2382

THANK YOU!

I received so many wonderful gifts this past week! Thank you for the cards, books, flowers, and monetary gifts! It means so much to teachers when parents/students go out of their way to say that we're appreciated! God bless you all!

Upcoming Events

May 19-

The Bronze Bow chapter 17-24
due

May 20-

Last day of school; Chapel

Summer Reading Challenge

Join the OSL Summer Reading Challenge! The Logic section has some wonderful options from which to choose. Of course there are the book staples like Narnia and The Lord of the Rings, but we've also included some lesser known classics: The Hiding Place, Across Five Aprils, and O Pioneers! One of my personal favorites is a newer book called Okay For Now. There are even some poetry options.

There are several ways to participate and prizes are included in reading a certain amount of books. Look for more information within the next few weeks!

