

Mrs. Prestwood's Ponderings January 22, 2024

Math Last week, we learned a little about how to skip count by 2s. We practiced skip counting songs and saw how we “passed over” certain numbers. We will continue this week to practice skip counting by 2s, and then we will jump into adding 10s. It’s amazing to see how much your scholars are learning! <hr/> 100th Day Project due January 26th! We will also have another Fun Food Friday with raspberries and Ricotta cheese on rye bread.
