

News from Kindergarten

Feb. 6, 2026

Sexageima

Dear Parents,

Next week is Spirit Week. Everyday has a fun dress up theme. Check out the school news letter for details.

Next Tuesday is Twin Day. All kindergarten scholars are dressing as skittles. Please send your child in a solid dark purple, green, yellow, red, or orange shirt. We will have s's cut out for the scholars to wear.

Next Thursday we are making stone soup. Please send a small baggie of a cut up vegetable. Some suggestions are onions, corn, green beans, tomatoes, zucchini, cabbage, and celery.

Our Valentines party is Friday, 12:00-12:50. We have 17 students. Please send 17 signed valentines. Please do not address them. We will clean up and pray at 12:50. Scholars will be dismissed after prayer at 1:00.

This week:

Religion: Jesus teaches and preaches. We can find what Jesus taught in the Bible. It is important for us to know what Jesus says. His words are still true today.

Math: adding 10s, counting by tens

L.A. : letter e

Literature: Elmer, Seven Blind Mice, The Extraordinary Egg, The Dinosaur Egg Rescue, Greek Myths,

Lock Words: green, bowl, and his

History: Texas: 6 flags have flown over Texas. Texas was once it's own country.

Science: Mars is the red planet because of the iron. Jupiter is the largest planet. It is the first of the 4 outer gas planets.

Next Week

Memory: week 24

“Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.”

Religion: Jesus ministry

Math: Adding hundreds

L.A. Letter s/ stone soup on Thursday

Lock words: they, gave, tail

Geography: Texas: The bluebonnet is the state flower

Science: Saturn

In His Service,
Debbie Armstrong

OUR SAVIOR
LUTHERAN SCHOOL