

LITERATUS LINGUA

MRS. WEIDER

Grammar/Literature

This week in Shurley English we will continue to work on verbs. There's just so much to verbs in the English language and we are digging deeply into principal parts, irregular and regular, and moods of verbs as well.

We never seem to go quite as quickly as I would like when it comes to reading aloud, but we're making our way into chapters 5-7 this week. Our protagonist, Daniel, is forced to return to the village he escaped, and he has the opportunity to meet Jesus. This experience throws Daniel for a loop as he struggles to understand the message of love and forgiveness which Jesus shares. His life until now had been largely built on hatred and revenge. This struggle is at the heart of our novel.

Writing Skills

I wanted to take a quick moment to share a bit about the writing skills we have developed this year. Each grade 6 student has had several opportunities to grow in their writing skills. I have noted many improvements in the scholars' writing over the last month or so. The scholars are writing with improved organization, grammar, and elocution. By the end of the year, each student will have written:

- * One Chreia
- * Three persuasive essays (based on the literature)
- * One comparison essay
- * Several literary response paragraphs
- * One book review
- * Several literary and primary source summaries

Shema

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.
