Seventh Literature

"The Most Dangerous Game" by Richard Connell

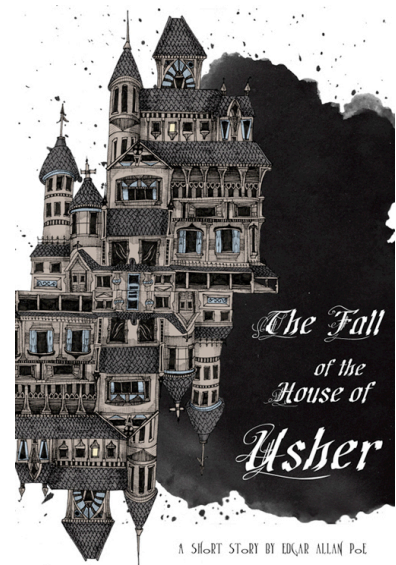

What a cool story! It's usually a class favorite. As we reviewed the story elements in our study guide, we realized that there are many types of conflict that can represent in a great story. The Most Dangerous Game obviously has Man vs. Man, but Man vs. Nature and Man vs. Self were also easily identified.

Eighth Literature

"The Fall of the House of Usher" by Edgar Allan Poe

This story is weird and creepy. Apparently the actual building 'House of Usher' and the genetic 'House of Usher' are very ancient and somehow tied together. The narrator has been invited by Roderick Usher to help him recover from his depression. The death of his twin sister is not helping. Vocabulary will be very important in our study of this short story.

Literature Learn By Heart Extra Credit

Learn by Heart Extra Credit this week was

"Stopping by Woods" by Robert Frost worth 35 Points

Support #EagleFund!

Annual Fund - Donate Today!

Through our annual fund, we seek to ensure that our school continues to provide high-quality Christian education to all our scholars, regardless of their financial circumstances.

All gifts will allow Our Savior Lutheran School to go above and beyond for its scholars and families. We have a lofty goal this year for our #EagleFund of $100,000.

Please help us meet our end of year budget needs by supporting this year's #EagleFund campaign!

If we reach our goal by December 31, our scholars will get an extra day of Winter Break in February!

Thank you in advance for your support. We can't do this without you!
