

Mrs. Prestwood's Ponderings

Third Grade

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

In church tradition, we take the word “alleluia” away from our vocabulary between Ash Wednesday and Easter Sunday in order to show our sorrow for what our Lord has suffered for us. As we head towards Easter Sunday, however, we are excited to bring back our “alleluia” as we rejoice once more that Jesus has risen, just as He said! We are no longer governed by death, the devil, or our own sinful nature. We have been washed clean by the blood of the Lamb, a sacrifice that truly brings us to exclaim, “Alleluia!”

MATH

. Last week, we reviewed double digit by double digit multiplication. Next week, we will learn how to multiply by triple digits.
