Seventh Literature

"The Pit and the Pendulum" by Edgar Allan Poe

"The Pit and the Pendulum" is an interesting Poe story that takes place during the Spanish Inquisition. Our protagonist has been condemned to die in the dungeons of Toledo in the worst ways the inquisitors can imagine. Poe uses incredible description in the conflict of our story.

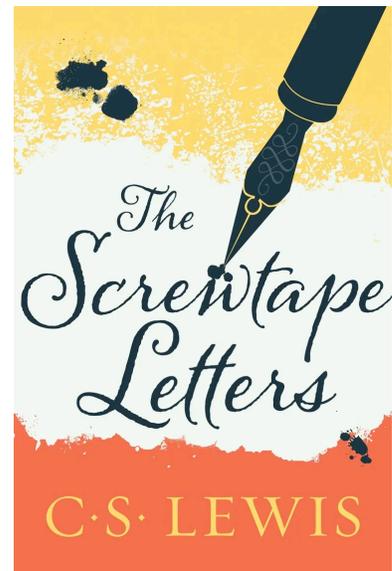

Eighth Literature

The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis

The 11th letter from Screwtape to his nephew Wormwood considered laughter as a tool of the demons. Screwtape categorized laughter as Joy, Fun, the Joke Proper, and Flippancy. Joy makes no sense to the demons because it comes from heaven and involves love.

Flippancy makes a joke of everything and nothing is serious; it deadens the soul.

Seventh Grade Progym

The Seventh Graders are working on their next Narrative project. They chose their own Biblical Narrative to retell with their own voice, word choice, sentence fluency, variations, and Figures of Description.

The Good Samaritan Narrative Final Draft is Due 2/2

Eighth Grade Progym

The Eighth Graders Chreia is a Historical Chreia that will explain a quote from a historical figure of their choice. Using our chreia essay format we will attempt to explain our understanding of the interesting quote. Each paragraph in the body of the essay is in narrative form to help the audience visualize, understand, and connect the essay to the quote.

The Historical Chreia Final Draft is Due 2/6
